For each pickup, solder the black and white wires together and tape up each connection.

Note: Tailpiece should be connected to common ground. All grounds must be connected.